

Karlie Bartholomew

About:

Born and raised in Brooklyn Park, Maryland, Karlie Bartholomew has always had a passion for music. Heavily influenced by artists like Ingrid Michaelson, Norah Jones and Sara Bareilles, Karlie is drawn to authenticity and strives to keep her lyrics honest. "My songs focus on storytelling, hoping the listener can see themselves in my music," she explains. Her smooth voice, jazzy chord progressions and folk-inspired lyrics will silence any room.

Press:

"Americana singer/songwriter Karlie Bartholomew may be a newcomer to releasing music, but she is already a star in our eyes."

-Music City Melodies

Career Highlights:

- Chosen as featured soloist for Berklee College of Music Commencement Concert, performing for an audience of 7,000, including Lionel Richie and Lucinda Williams.

- Named Nashville Socialite's Artist of the Month in November 2021

www.karliemusic.com

Latest Release:

"A Way to Start" -
Now Available on All Streaming Platforms

Contact:

contact@karliemusic.com

Social Media:

@karliemusic

